Building for the Future

It seemed as if there was always something new happening at school this year— new construction, new parking spot policies, new laptops, and even a new daily announcement system. All these changes, while sometimes hard to adjust to, continue to help build North Scott High School into the future and ensure that Lancer Pride will last for generations to come.

—Miranda Hale, Editor-in-Chief

—Amanda Crocker Assistant Editor-in-Chief

"Senior year is the time to find myself and express the tools that North Scott has given me. It is time to use the knowledge I have gained through my years here to continue on through my life."

Once a Lancer, Always a Lancer...

Next year I will be attending the University of Iowa to receive a degree in Music Education. In five years, I will be working on getting my Master's Degree and hopefully working as a high school band director.

- Maddie LaPage

I plan on becoming a nurse and traveling the United States.

- Breanna Worrall

Next year I plan to go into the Navy. In five years, I will be getting out of the Navy.

- Michael Grunder

Next year I will be at Kirkwood College in Cedar Rapids studying business. In five years, I hope I am in the process of getting a Realtor's degree.

- Chad Puffinbarger

I plan on going to college at Scott Community College and I plan to start a career at John Deere within five years and plan to live very happy.

- Cody Duncan

I'm going to Iowa State to double major in Global Resource Systems and Environmental Science, with a possible minor in Chemistry. After that, I am going to grad school at the University of Illinois to get my master's degree in Chemistry.

- Abby Nass

Next year, I will be living in Los Angeles, California working in the dance industry, traveling the world, attending a University out there, and volunteering to help children in poverty.

- Jordan Jones

After graduation I will move to Chicago and attend college at the Art Institute to study graphic design and programming but I will also continue furthering my career at UPS.

- Rihlen Mital

I am going to be in the Navy as an E-3 and will be going to the east coast.

- Luke Cossellmen

Next year I will be at basic training for the military and in five years after that I will be in college.

- Taylor Keith

In one year I plan to be attending Black Hawk College to get my Associate in Applied Science to eventually become an Electrician. In five years, I will have graduated and probably searching for an available job opportunity in my field of study.

- Aaron Brodersen

In the future, I'm going to live on a mountain and hunt moose for breakfast. In the meantime, my husband will stay at home, clean my house and take care of my babies.

- Claire Fredericksen

Next year, I plan on going to the University of Iowa and studying Pre-Chiropractic. Go Hawks!

- Sydne Thomas

Next year I will be attending Millikin University, and in five years I will have a BFA in Art Studio. I plan on studying abroad and visiting big cities as much as I can.

- Taryn Pepping

My plans for next year are to hopefully be in boot camp for the Marines over in Parris, South Carolina. If I don't go though I will go to Scott for two years and who knows where I am going after that if the Marines don't take me then the Army said they would.

- Irina Volk

After this year I am going to start international business management school and I hope to have opened my own little show in five years.

-Rianne Vroegop

Next year I will be going to school at the Blong Technology Center to get my degree in welding. Five years from now I plan on having a successful career as a welder for any major company.

- David Long

Next year I am hoping to be at UNI studying for mathematics. In five years I'm hoping to be a high school math teacher teaching Calculus.

- Sam Achenbach

My plans after high school are going to the University of Iowa to study Childcare. After that, it depends what God wants me to do next.

- Adrienne Rus

Next year, I am going to UNI to get a major in Business Administration. In five years I hopefully will get a job with my Masters degree.

- Robby Vaske

From Here to...

My plan next year is to go to Iowa State University, hopefully be cheering there, and majoring in Exercise Science. In five years I hope to be graduated from ISU and have a job being a personal trainer.

- Lindsay Bloome

Next year, I'm going to Iowa State to room with Lindsay Bloome and major in Elementary Education. Then I will move somewhere warm to start a family.

- Rachel Brimeyer

After graduation, my plan is to attend Mt. Mercy University, run cross country and track while I study Pre-Med. Five years down the road, I hope to be finishing up my schooling to begin another new chapter of my life in the career field of my desire.

- Shelby Sorensen

Next year, I am going to college and take basic classes core stuff and figure out where I am going from there.

- John Haxton

I'm going to UNI then I'm going to be super rich.

- Tim Dau

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away! You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. You are the guy who'll decided where to go.
— Dr. Seuss, "Oh, the Places You'll Go!"

After graduation, I will be attending Wartburg College for Music Therapy and Music Education! Hopefully five years from now I will be working with hospital or therapy patients by teaching them music as a different type of therapy or I could be somewhere that I could teach music in a school as a band director! Wherever life takes me.

- Allison Coe

I plan on going to Scott for two years and studying Exercise Science then UNI for two years.

- Katie Soy

In ten years, I will be in a power-couple relationship with my husband in San Diego. Hopefully I'll be working my way up to CEO of a company and have a bun in the oven.

- Muriel Francis-Hoyle

Next year, I may be going to Hamilton Tech to study to be in electrician. In five years I will hopefully be in my own house and out of Iowa.

- Billy Baclet

Since I graduated early I have been working full time at Children's Choice Daycare and part time at McDonald's saving up money. In the fall I plan to attend Scott Community College to get my Gen Eds and my CDA (Child Development Associate) certificate. I'm not 100% sure what I'm going to do after that I'm just taking it one step at a time!

- Gabi Hawk

Next year, I'm going to the University of Dubuque to study Aviation. After college I plan to either fly for a private company or be a medic helicopter pilot.

- Gabby Kroeger

Next year, I am going to Capri College to study Esthetics for nine months and hopefully have a job as a spa specialist. In five years I either want to open my own salon and spa or go to school to become a dermatologist.

- Gretchen Wilkerson

Next year, I plan to go to St. Louis University in Missouri and I want to study either Physical Therapy or Pre-Med. In five years, I will still be in school working on my degree.

- Carter Stark

I'm going to be going to Eastern Illinois University for soccer, and I am going to major in Communications with a Political Science minor. In 5 years I'll hopefully be attending Law School to someday be an attorney in a big city.

- Chloe Gottschalk

Next year, I plan on going to UNI and majoring in Elementary Education and minoring in Special Education in hopes to someday be a teacher! In five years, I plan to be living somewhere much warmer and volunteering around the world.

-Julia Kerling

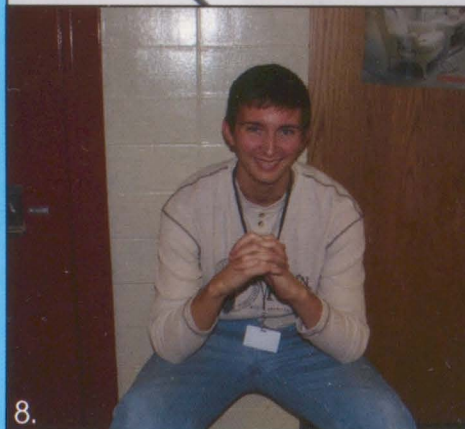

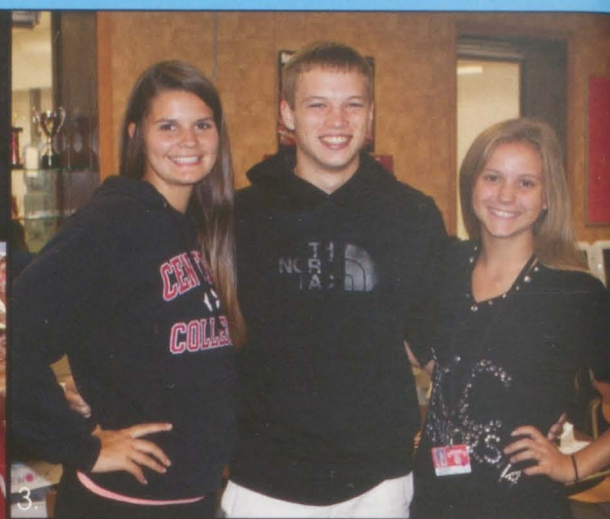

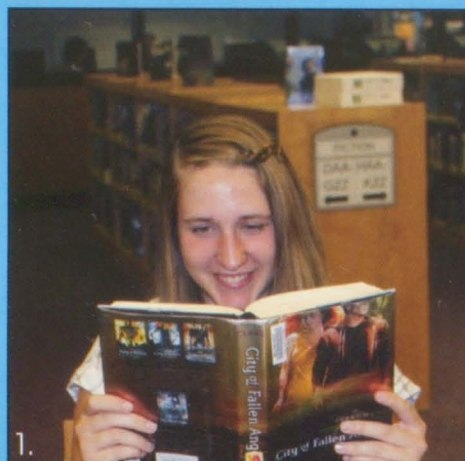

I plan to attend Wartburg College in Waverly and to major in music, specifically choral directing. In five years, I hope to have a job as a choir director at a high school somewhere in the midwest.

- Laura Klever

My plans for next year are to hopefully be at St. Ambrose University to major in Sports Management. If St. Ambrose doesn't work out, I'll go to Scott for a couple of years to get started off.

ALL STATE CHORUS

(L-R) Cayla Shuppy, Muriel Francis-Hoyle, Jessie Karr, Alex Karnish, and Nathan Greve were accepted into the Iowa All-State Chorus.

Senior Memories

"I can't choose one. I have many memories that I couldn't choose between. I'm just glad they're with all my girls! I love you guys. I can't forget about my boys either. Thanks to everyone who has ever shared some memories with me. I'll look back and smile years from now."
- Courtney Luther

"Abigail's poem about Cody and his belt in Laura's basement."
- Allison Coe

"Football. Everything about it. Everything from conditioning until we could hardly walk, to the speeches before games, and camp at Central College. Everyone that works to give us players a program that we are proud to be a part of deserves a huge thank you. They helped give me the highlight of my high school career."
- Taylor Keith

"Hearing the band play and the crowd roaring as we took the field running. Friday night football gave me goosebumps."
- Cam Sorensen

"All the nights in K-Skeez's basement."
- Julia Kerling

"Homecoming week."
- Michael Grunder

"Making music, gossiping with Alex Karnish, and making faces at Alex McCammant during band."
- Madeline LaPage

"Making Jambalaya in Ms. Halfman's class. It was good."
- Jonathan Haxton

"Tripping the entire drum line during the Senior Show of my freshman year and starting the domino effect."
- Abigail Morrow

"All of Breanna Worrall's gay friends being straight, gossiping on the bus with Maddie LaPage, and being called TJ's homie by a stoned woman."
- Alex Karnish

"When I wore an orange jumpsuit and pretended to hitchhike. LOL."
- Tim Dau

"Going all out for Homecoming week, especially when I dressed up as a girl for neon day."
- Rihlen Mital

"My favorite high school memory was going to New York City for the Choir trip my sophomore year."
- Gabi Hawk

"Going to the fair with my friends."
- Derek Golinghorst

"My favorite memory is when we went to Regionals for cheer in Des Moines and got lost 3 times trying to get to the competition. And then finding out we're going to Nationals!!!"
- Brittany Hamilton

"To laugh at how every lunch has chicken."
- John Megrew

"I remember not remembering Mitch Bowman knocking me out."
- Nathan Pauli

"Party at the Moontower! And trapshooting with Claire!"
- Sam Cronkleton

"Nights in K-Skeez's basement and walking around huddled in blankets at XC meets with Kris and Sky."
- Maddi Temperly

"I remember blowing off homework and going to parties all night. Although, homework is definitely more important than having fun and partying."
- Samantha Blankenfled

"The years spent learning from Mr. Peeters and Mr. Dailey about uniqueness and individuality."
- David Long

"My favorite memory from high school is waiting for the party bus on senior homecoming and how the bus driver almost left us at the restaurant... but luckily I got into his face and saved the night."
- Gretchen Wilkerson

"My favorite memory from high school would be from the homecoming game last year."
- Kevin Hargis

"Knocking Nathan Pauli out during wrestling practice."
- Mitch Bowman

"My favorite memory is spending time with my friends at the football games and playing in the marching band."
- Adrienne Rus

"The day I met Brooke."
- Billy Baclet

"My favorite memory from high school is cheering for basketball all four years. We have had good cheer teams in the past, but this year is by far my favorite!"
- Gianna Sanicola

"My favorite memory from high school is meeting my best friend, Maddie LaPage sophomore year and every moment I've gotten to spend with her at dances and other events."
- Sarah Whitaker

"Post-dance parties at Laura's and Gaby's!"
- Breanna Worrall

"Going to Warped Tour and spending all day with Christine and Laura in Chicago."
- Maggie Kirby

"When I eat Hardee's with my body guard Brody."
- Devin Nistico

"There are too many memories, but my best memories all took place in Ms. Halfman's room. These last four years wouldn't have been amazing without my friends that have been my family."
- Brooke Downing

"Throwing a chair at Mr. Hawley my freshman year."
- Ashlee Webster

"The piece of ship!"
- Claire Fredericksen

"My favorite memory would be sophomore year biology with Kayla Foster and how we gave Mr. Newmeister sass and busted up laughing all the time!"
- Baileigh Swanson

"My favorite memory of high school has been participating in events, such as Dance Marathon and Special Runners because they have changed my perspective on life. These events raise money to help people out in life. That's why these are my favorite experiences. I'm so glad I was able to be a part of those experiences!"
- Cody Birely

"Pushing Breanna's car in the parking lot to start it."
- Hannah Kroeger

"Drive your tractor to school day my junior year."
- Adam Dickey

"Girls' nights, our random adventures, and making it to Nationals in Disney World with my team!"
- Shelby Ketron

"All the fun and crazy times spent with friends, cheering on the Lancers, and making numerous memories."
- Sydne Thomas

"TP-ing Codie Heim's house for homecoming court."
- Olivia Brewer

"Actually, as an exchange student, I don't have lots of high school memories, but I can definitely say that at this time my favorite memory is homecoming week and the powder puff football game. That was awesome! Anyway, one of my other best memories was my last cross country meet :)"
- Guilia Filippini

"Summers on Claire's lake, The 'lil piece of ship,' and of course homecoming week with the SFA/TGB."
- Annie DeVries

"Sitting at lunch is probably the funnest thing about school."
- Levi White

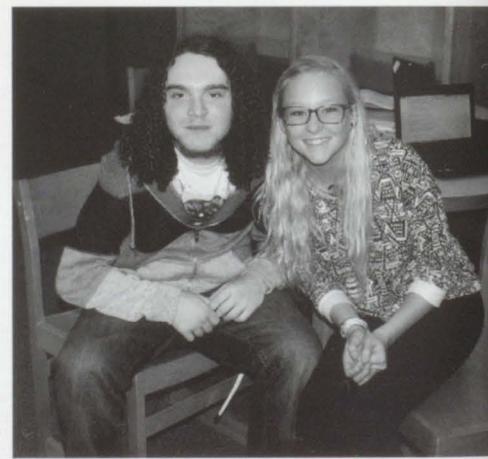

"Meeting all the people I'm friends with now."
- Chelsea Sehmman

"Doing crazy things with the Bros every single weekend!"
- Nate Rheingans

"Hanging out with my friends, taking ECE classes with Mrs. Ferrel, and of course Homecoming week! TGB for life!"
- Katie Jelinske

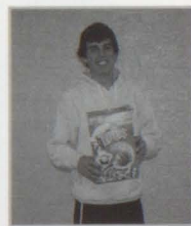

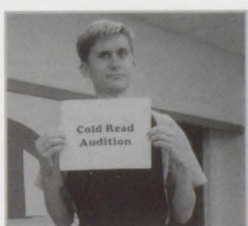

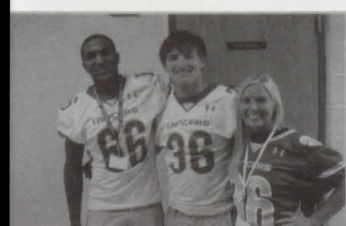

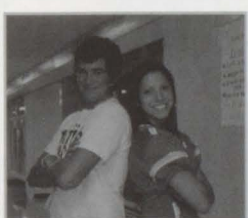

"Baseball playoffs and Friday night football games."
- Dustin Stahl

"My favorite memories are going to state softball, going on the mission trip with the cross country team to Moore, Oklahoma. And hanging out with my friends."
- Shelby Sorensen

"I love my class and can't wait to spend another year with them. As Tim Duncan once said, 'I'm surrounded by nothing but great people. I've been blessed with that, so really, I've got no choice but to be an all-around good person.'"

- Grant Graham

Karen Garcia

1. What do you like about North Scott?
- The football's season, how the people are crazy for the football, all the people are kind.
2. What do you miss most back at home?
- My friends and my family.
3. What American expression have you learned, since being here, that you didn't know before?
- Gotcha.
4. What subject do you like the best?
- Geometry.
5. How much different is it here, than back home? The people, the school?
- The school is totally different, the methods for teaching is different, I miss my friends and my family.
6. What do you hope to remember about being a foreign exchange student at North Scott?
- I would like to remember my Host family and all the friends I have here.

Glulia Filippini

1. What do you like about North Scott? - Rest rooms, people are nice and friendly, lot of activities.
2. What do you miss the most back at home?
- My independence.
3. What American expression have you learned, since being here, that you didn't know before?
- You're bananas, you are basic, you rock.
4. What subject do you like the best? - English, elementary teacher helper (love those kids).
5. How much different is it here than, back home? The people, the school? - We don't have school dances, musical, cafeteria, lockers, everything is different, people are weird.
6. What do you hope to remember about being a foreign exchange student at North Scott?
- People, sports, all these new awesome experiences, carving pumpkins.

Rianne Vroegop

1. What do you like about North Scott? - I really like that it's a small school, so everyone knows each other.
2. What do you miss the most back at home?
- I miss the weekends with my friends, I'm going out all weekend back home and here not so much.
3. What American expressions have you learned, since being here, that you didn't know before?
- I don't even know.. I don't think I learned a lot of expressions.
4. What subject do you like the best? - I like interior design and foods a lot.
5. How much different is it here than, back home? The people, the school? - It is not very different, but we don't have music classes and sports at school and no the "fun" classes like foods, interior design. School is a lot more serious.
6. What do you hope to remember about being a foreign exchange student at North Scott?
- I hope I can look back at this year as a wonderful experience and I hope to remember the great people here, the most.

Karen Garacia, Karen Ruiz, Lidia Saiz Lorento, Marta Mesejo, Glulia Filippini, and Rianne Vroegop, take a minute for a group photo together.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Marta Garrote Mesejo

1. What do you like about North Scott? - I like the parts of that everything is different, new and exciting. People are really friendly and well coming, and really enjoy the independence that students have.
2. What do you miss the most back at home? - I Miss my family and friends, and actually the fact of being able to go through the halls and recognize all the faces. I do so miss my independence.
3. What American expressions have you learned, since being here, that you didn't know before? - You're bananas! To play in another league, Gotcha!
4. What subject do you like the best? - Drawing 2, I love art.
5. How much different is it here than, back home? The people, the school? - Everything is different. People are really friendly and welcoming, and the school... Well, the school is like being in a set of a movie.
6. What do you hope to remember about being a foreign exchange student at North Scott? - I think I'll never be able to forget anything about this year, but if I have to choose I hope I never forget how it does feel to be welcomed and loved by a completely new family.

Karen Ruiz

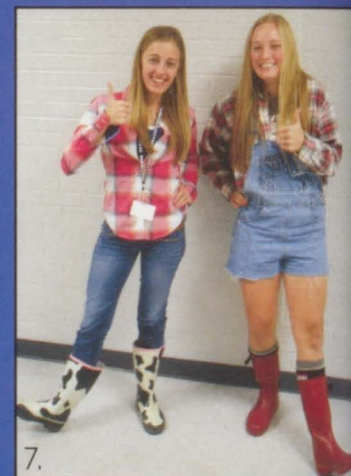

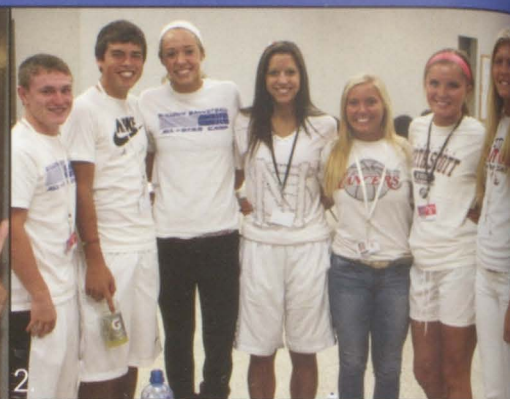

1. What do you like about North Scott? - I love the people, all the spirit.

Thank You, Mr. Kessinger

William Kessinger is a graduate of Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. At North Scott he directed the Symphonic Band and Jazz II, taught the music theory class, and was in charge of woodwind lessons. His students have been active participants in the All-State Bands, honor bands, and festivals. Mr. K has hosted music legends, such as Louie Bellson, Randy Brecker, Jiggs Whigham, Bobby Shew, Harold Jones, James Moody, Slide Hampton, Bob Mintzer, Jim Pugh, and many others. Mr. Kessinger is a member of IBA, SEIBA, ASBDA, MENC, IMEA, NEA, JEI, ISEA, and NSEA (past president).. He has served as an adjudicator, clinician, and honor band director in both Iowa and Illinois. In 2004, Mr. K was honored with the Karl King Distinguished Service Award for the Southeast Iowa Bandmasters District. (SEIBA)

Mr. K plays oboe in the Clinton Symphony Orchestra and is a charter member of the Quad City Wind Ensemble. He considers himself lucky to have performed and worked with many outstanding directors and teachers in his career, including George Opheim, Don Jackson, John Paynter, Ardy McIntosh, Dan Anderson, Jim Bawden, Jennie McKenna, Chuck Dcamp, Andy Mast, and Mike McMann. Mr. Kessinger lives in Moline with his wife, Lee, who is the French Horn Professor at Augustana College and runs a private horn studio out of their home.

This was his final year teaching at North Scott. After 39 years of service, he has touched the lives and hearts of hundreds and hundreds of young musicians. He will be dearly missed by all. However, we congratulate him on his retirement. Here are some words of thanks from just a few of the students and coworkers that he has helped throughout the years:

Thank you, Mr. K, for being friendly to everyone, even if the band screws up. Music is one of the greatest skills a person can have, and two generations have it because of you.

-Arthur Behnke

I would like to thank Mr. K for not getting me sick after all the times he put my reed in his mouth and then gave it back to me to play. Also I would like to thank him for always cheering me up with a good joke.

Mr. K has made me laugh with a series of jokes and funny faces. I feel lucky to have had him as my band director and will miss him greatly. No one will ever live up to the standards he has set for the Symphonic Band director.

-Jessie Karr

Gustave Mahler said it so well: "What is best in music is not to be found in the notes." Thank you, Mr. K., for teaching our students this and so much more through music.

-Jennie McKenna-Fellow Band Director

I was deeply blessed to have Mr. K as a teacher. He is incredible at teaching theory and music in general, but I respected him most for his kindness and patience with students. I'm sure I speak for everyone when I say "Congratulations" and I hope he enjoys many more years with his family.

-Branden Randleman- Former Student

Mr. K. has been the best coach for learning not only music skills, but life lessons - he has been kind, thoughtful and considerate, and I know that he has made an impact on each and every student.

-Dorothy Weaver

He has been like a grandpa to me over the years. He always believed in me and pushed me to do my best, even if that meant giving me the signature "Mr. K look" to let me know I should do something! I will miss him so much and hope he has a good retirement!

-Allison Coe

Without Mr. K I would have never realized the true importance of practicing. I never would have made it much farther without his help and without practicing.

-Cole Duncalf

Mr. Kessinger, Thank you for being a great colleague and mentor! You will be missed!

-Ashley Wilson-Fellow Band Director

Mr. Kessinger will always be one of my favorite teachers. He had a passion for music like nobody else I've ever known, and it was infectious. I wouldn't have half the success or drive musically or generally without Mr. K's support and guidance.

-Kevin Knoer- Former Student

Mr. K is such an inspiration to me because he always pushed me to be better and challenged me to go out of my comfort zone.

-Molly Engle

Through being under the direction of Mr. Kessinger in Jazz II has allowed me to imitate the language, emulate, study it, and become immersed to create from there. Thanks for the guidance and support!

Mr. K has taught me how to be a better musician and helped me come closer to my full potential. I thank him for everything he has done to make our band the best we can be. I will miss not having him teach for my senior year.

-Jenna Coe

I can't imagine sharing this awesome program with a better person. Mr. K has such a big heart and really gave it all to the students. I am really going to miss having him in the office next door.

-Mike McMann- Fellow Band Director

I had the privilege of being able to work with Mr. K all 4 years. I knew I was extremely privileged and blessed to be able to have such a talented, knowledgeable, humorous, energetic, and overall great musical mentor who challenged me to not only become a better musician but a better person.

-Anthony Curlott- Former Student

Mr. K. has been like a grandpa to all of us! I've always looked forward to any class with Mr. K. He has made the last four years a blast and I wish him well in retirement! He has definitely earned it!

-Cody Birely

Mr. K's biggest impact on me throughout my band career was through his never ending support, and high expectations. He shared his love of music with me by expecting me to do my best and holding me to what he knew I was capable of.

-Helena LaCorte
I came to this school my sophomore year and instantly Mr. K was my favorite teacher. He put up with my shenanigans, only teased me a little, and made me strive to become more than I ever dreamed possible. Thank you, Mr. K, for being my band director, my mentor, and my friend.

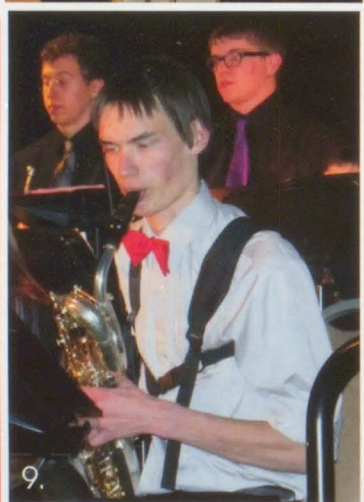

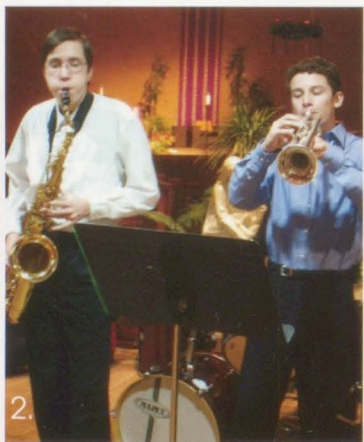

-Madeline LaPage

Mr. K was always a great role model. He showed kindness, selflessness, and wisdom everyday. He taught me many lessons about improving my musical skills and how to be a better person.

-Jacob Sikorski- Former Student

Art Showcase

At North Scott High School, our art department offers a number of classes for the artistically inclined and those interested in learning how to take the perfect photograph, throw a beautiful pot, or take the path to a thought-provoking drawing.

Mr. Peeters' art students learn how to 'see with new eyes', and here are some fantastic examples of how they have journeyed to create fantastic works for everyone to enjoy.

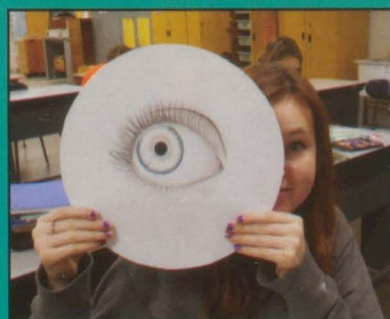

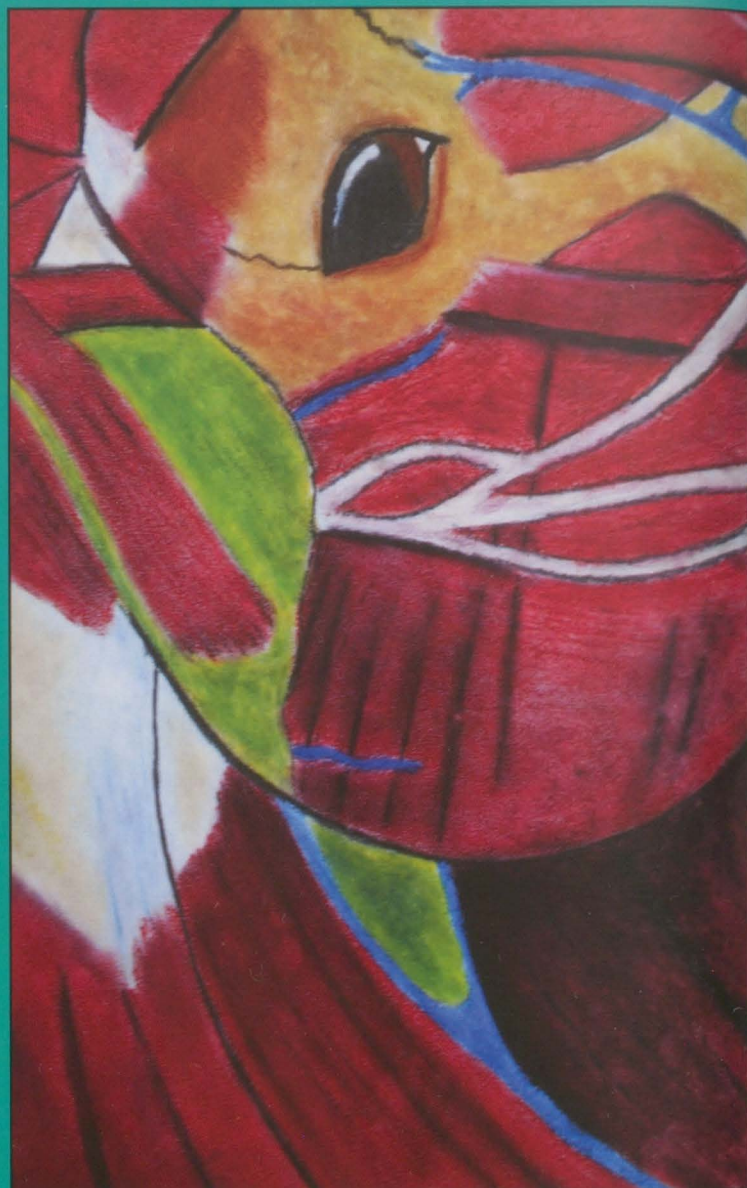

Top: Rebekah Arana Nigh shows off her pastel artwork of a duck close-up.

Bottom right: An assassin's face is shrouded in darkness in this white-on black work by Jevon Boley.

Right: Nicole Buttlet's illustration of a tiger in white on black.

Bottom: A photograph of fallen leaves taken by Rachel Carter.

Above: Sarah Barr holds her realistic drawing of an eye to her face for a real-life comparison.

Right: Alizabethe Colson proudly shows off her Mandala, a circular drawing that often is repeating.

Grade: 11

Favorite Medium: Markers

"What I love about art is that you get to express yourself in whatever way you want."

Name: Marta Garrote Mesejo

Grade: 11

Favorite Medium: Pencil

"I guess that art is the only way I have to express who I really am without having people around thinking I am weird and creepy."

Name: Sarah Barr

Grade: 11

Favorite Medium: Pen & Ink

"I love this class [Drawing] because there's no pressure to do things 'the right way'. You can express yourself and be appreciated for it."

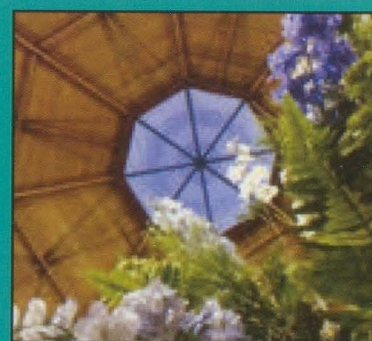

Name: Caleb Hahn

Grade: 11

Favorite Medium: Photography

"I use photography as a way to show my view on the world to other people."

Top: Mr. Peeters helps student Taylor Coxx smooth out his sculpture of the millennium pyramid.

Senior Speechie and Techie Memories:

"Doing cartwheels through the halls with Breanna during rehearsal one night and splitting my pants. That and crazy Speech dinners"

Steph Konrady

"Probably looking in horror at the Jar at All-State, awesome bus rides, and learning about hyperbolic functions from Becca at the St. Louis Arch."

Alex Karnish

"It's in the bible...Oh sweet mystery of life at last I found you...Crying during 'Playing for Time', and every moment that I got to spend with my best friends in the world"

Madeline LaPage

"Eating sandwiches on the bus, napping with Pooh Bear, seeing all my friends perform, and spending time with Maddie LaPage."

Alex McCammant

"Forgetting the books at the high school on the way to competition and having to stop at Staples to make new ones."

Andy Owings

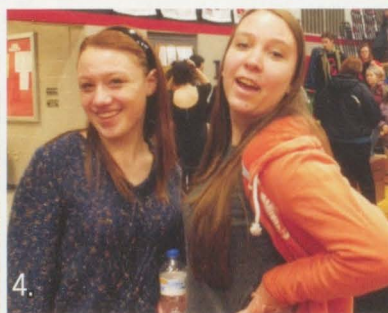

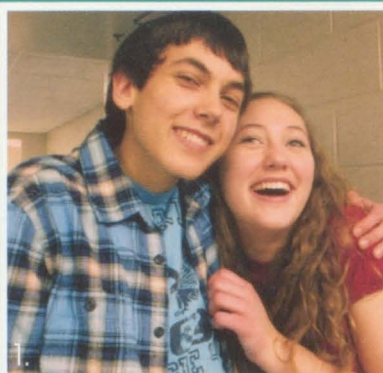

"Going to Pizza Ranch after competitions, getting to hear our comments from the judges, and spending time with the SpeeEch Family. Also, walking into the gym with all of our stuff and seeing the reactions from the other schools."

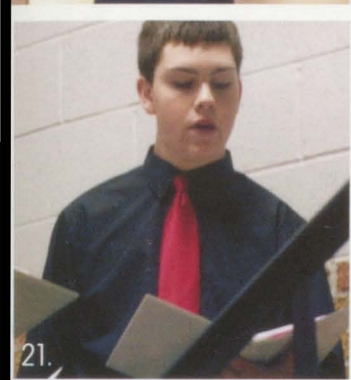

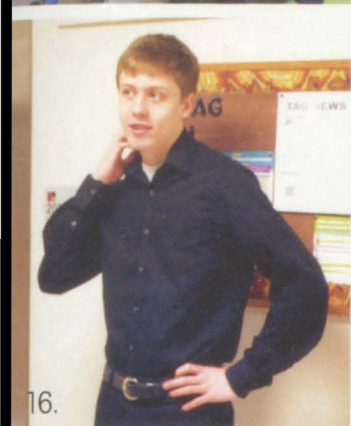

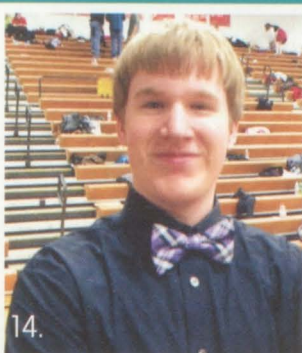

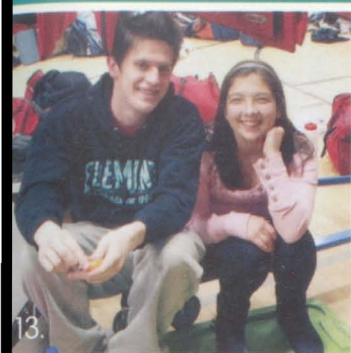

Sarah Whitaker

SpeeEch Team

Coaches: Stacie Kintigh and Emily Heyer

"S-P-E-E-C-H I PUT TOO MANY E'S IN SPEECH. GOOOO SPEECH!"

"Chin up, Rosemary!"
Taryn Pepping

"The day that I looked on the IHSSA website and discovered that I made All State for acting and prose." Madalyn Smith

"Delivering a flawless performance at State after Ali injured her knee an hour before our performance and then finding out we made it to All-State!"

Breanna Worrall

"Making All State for Postcode envy in my first year of Speech."

Kevin Meyer

"My favorite memory was during 'For One More Day', my sophomore year. Apparently, no one thought to tell the actors the chairs they were sitting on had recently been painted. I remember struggling to keep a straight face as they peeled up off of the chairs, with white paint all over their clothes."

Abigail Morrow

"Being the little spoon with Andy Owings or being a Nazi in the Sausage Scene for 'Playing for Time.'"

Aaron Brodersen

"The bonds you make with your cast while working on a piece. They're the people who become your closest friends."

Helena LaCorte

North Scott students who had taken part in Mr. Peeters' art classes had the opportunity to join the beloved teacher on his last year leading art department students through a fantastic, memorable trip to downtown Chicago. During their stay, students visited the Art Institute and the Field Museum, as well as took a photo opportunity at Chicago's famous metallic bean.

Attendees got on the bus at the early hour of 5:30 in the morning and returned to the school at 11 at night. It was definitely worth the fun, friends, and time spent with NSHS' favorite artist before his retirement.
